iii) EXHIBIT E find attached 3 emails to Jane Scharf and Pamela Palmer from Irwin Elman dated October 7, 15, 30, 2013, and an affidavit prepared by Pamela Palmer confirming that the Advocate does not support Bill 88 in its current form.
6. In these teleconferences we raised our concerns about Bill 88. We had seen a public announcement he put out on September 17, 2013 where he appeared to support the bill. Mr. Elman assured us that he did not support the bill in its current form and that it needs amendments. (Tape reference 2:34 to 5:26 dated October 15th, 2013)

7. Mr. Elman told us the bill needs "work and changes". (Tape reference 4:46 to 5:02 Recorded October 23, 2013)
  8. Mr. Elman told us that " the Children's Aid does not have capacity to support, and I do not mean money, they do not know how to support these children 16 to 18 and so in my mind, that mandated service needs to be elsewhere." (5:45 6:09 Recorded October 23, 2013)
  9. Mr. Elman also stated in the call that Rod Jackson, did not consult with his office when drafting the bill. "He did not consult with us about drafting that bill " October 23rd, 2013(34:59 to 35:02)
  10. Mr. Elman continues to say "He drafted the bill, not sure how he drafted it or why he decided, 'cus he wasn't at the hearings. My, you know, I don't know where he got the language for the bill or the idea to do it as a voluntary agreement um I don't know, I have no idea." (35:32 35:54) October 23, 2013 There was no discussions with any young people here or at the office". October 23, 2013(35:56 36:01)
  11. Evidence of Item 6 Here is the link to the Auditor General's report that demonstrates the Children's Aid Societies are not financially responsible <http://fixcas.com/news/2006/auditor.pdf>
  12. Evidence of Item 7 i) Here is a link from the Toronto Star dated March 14th, 2013 that shows a leaked memo from the Peel Children's Aid Society that proves the C.A.S is harming children and families by keeping clients in care in order to retain funding.
